SOUTH CAROLINA DISCLOSURE OF REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS

Pursuant to South Carolina Real Estate License Law in S.C. Code of Laws Section 40-57-370, a real estate licensee is required to provide you a meaningful explanation of agency relationships offered by the licensee's brokerage firm. This must be done at the first practical opportunity when you and the licensee have substantive contact.

Before you begin to work with a real estate licensee, it is important for you to know the difference between a broker-in-charge and associated licensees. The broker-in-charge is the person in charge of a real estate brokerage firm. Associated licensees may work only through a broker-in-charge. In other words, when you choose to work with any real estate licensee, your business relationship is legally with the brokerage firm and not with the associated licensee.

A real estate brokerage firm and its associated licensees can provide buyers and sellers valuable real estate services, whether in the form of basic customer services, or through client-level agency representation. The services you can expect will depend upon the legal relationship you establish with the brokerage firm. It is important for you to discuss the following information with the real estate licensee and agree on whether in your business relationship you will be a customer or a client.

You Are a Customer of the Brokerage Firm

South Carolina license law defines customers as buyers or sellers who choose NOT to establish an agency relationship. The law requires real estate licensees to perform the following basic duties when dealing with any real estate buyer or seller as customers: present all offers in a timely manner, account for money or other property received on your behalf, provide an explanation of the scope of services to be provided, be fair and honest and provide accurate information, provide limited confidentiality, and disclose "material adverse facts" about the property or the transaction which are within the licensee's knowledge.

Unless or until you enter into a written agreement with the brokerage firm for agency representation, you are considered a "customer" of the brokerage firm, and the brokerage firm will not act as your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the brokerage firm or its licensees to promote your best interest.

Customer service does not require a written agreement; therefore, you are not committed to the brokerage firm in any way unless a transaction broker agreement or compensation agreement obligates you otherwise.

Transaction Brokerage

A real estate brokerage firm may offer transaction brokerage in accordance with S.C. Code of Laws Section 40-57-350. Transaction broker means a real estate brokerage firm that provides customer service to a buyer, a seller, or both in a real estate transaction. A transaction broker may be a single agent of a party in a transaction giving the other party customer service. A transaction broker also may facilitate a transaction without representing either party. The duties of a brokerage firm offering transaction brokerage relationship to a customer can be found in S.C. Code of Laws Section 40-57-350(L)(2).

You Can Become a Client of the Brokerage Firm

Clients receive more services than customers. If client status is offered by the real estate brokerage firm, you can become a client by entering into a written agency agreement requiring the brokerage firm and its associated licensees to act as an agent on your behalf and promote your best interests. If you choose to become a client, you will be asked to confirm in your written representation agreement that you received this agency relationships disclosure document in a timely manner.

A seller becomes a client of a real estate brokerage firm by signing a formal listing agreement with the brokerage firm. For a seller to become a client, this agreement must be in writing and must clearly establish the terms of the agreement and the obligations of both the seller and the brokerage firm which becomes the agent for the seller.

A buyer becomes a client of a real estate brokerage firm by signing a formal buyer agency agreement with the brokerage firm. For a buyer to become a client, this agreement must be in writing and must clearly establish the terms of the agreement and the obligations of both the buyer and the brokerage firm which becomes the agent for the buyer.

If you enter into a written agency agreement, as a client, the real estate brokerage has the following client-level duties: obedience, loyalty, disclosure, confidentiality, accounting, and reasonable skill and care. Client-level services also include advice, counsel and assistance in negotiations.

Single Agency

When the brokerage firm represents only one client in the same transaction (the seller or the buyer), it is called single agency.

Dual Agency

Dual agency exists when the real estate brokerage firm has two clients in one transaction – a seller client and a buyer client. At the time you sign an agency agreement, you may be asked to acknowledge whether you would consider giving written consent allowing the brokerage firm to represent both you and the other client in a disclosed dual agency relationship.

Disclosed Dual Agency

In a disclosed dual agency, the brokerage firm’s representation duties are limited because the buyer and seller have recognized conflicts of interest. Both clients’ interests are represented by the brokerage firm. As a disclosed dual agent, the brokerage firm and its associated licensees cannot advocate on behalf of one client over the other, and cannot disclose confidential client information concerning the price negotiations, terms, or factors motivating the buyer/client to buy or the seller/client to sell. Each Dual Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property.

Designated Agency

In designated agency, a broker-in-charge may designate individual associated licensees to act solely on behalf of each client. Designated agents are not limited by the brokerage firm’s agency relationship with the other client, but instead have a duty to promote the best interest of their clients, including negotiating a price. The broker-in-charge remains a disclosed dual agent for both clients, and ensures the assigned agents fulfill their duties to their respective clients. At the time you sign an agency agreement, you may be asked to acknowledge whether you would consider giving written consent allowing the brokerage firm to designate a representative for you and one for the other client in a designated agency. Each Designated Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property.

It’s Your Choice

As a real estate consumer in South Carolina, it is your choice as to the type and nature of services you receive.

- You can choose to remain a customer and represent yourself, with or without a transaction broker agreement.
- You can choose to hire the brokerage firm for representation through a written agency agreement.
- If represented by the brokerage firm, you can decide whether to go forward under the shared services of dual agency or designated agency or to remain in single agency.

If you plan to become a client of a brokerage firm, the licensee will explain the agreement to you fully and answer questions you may have about the agreement. Remember, however that until you enter into a representation agreement with the brokerage firm, you are considered a customer and the brokerage firm cannot be your advocate, cannot advise you on price or terms, and only provides limited confidentiality unless a transaction broker agreement obligates the brokerage firm otherwise.

The choice of services belongs to you – the South Carolina real estate consumer.

Buyer agrees to hold Seller and all Brokers harmless from all claims, injuries and damages arising out of, or related to, the exercise of these rights and will repair any damages resulting from same.

9. PROPERTY SOLD SUBJECT TO DUE DILIGENCE PERIOD:
(If Property being sold "As-Is" proceed to Paragraph 10 PROPERTY SOLD "AS-IS")

A. DUE DILIGENCE PERIOD INSPECTIONS: Buyer will have a ten (10) Business Day Due Diligence Period beginning at time of final Contract acceptance, as defined in Paragraph 29(B), to conduct, at Buyer's sole expense, whatever non-destructive inspections, examinations and testing of the Property that Buyer deems appropriate and necessary. This will include, but is not limited to, conducting a risk assessment/test for lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards, testing for environmental hazards, inspecting the heating and air (HVAC) system, and inspecting for active infestations of and/or damage from termites, other wood destroying organisms, fungi and for any drainage problems (CL-100 inspection). Any re-inspections that may be required will also be at Buyer's expense.

B. DUE DILIGENCE PERIOD EXTENSION: Notwithstanding other provisions to the contrary, in the event an inspector, in a written report provided to Seller or Seller's Broker prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, recommends any additional study, inspection or evaluation of any product, item or condition in the Property, or the results of any tests conducted cannot be completed or produced prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, then the Due Diligence Period may be extended by mutual agreement of Buyer and Seller through a written Addendum to this Contract. If Buyer and Seller cannot agree on an extension to the Due Diligence Period, then Buyer may proceed under the terms of Paragraph 9(C) based on available inspection reports or void this Contract and earnest money will be released to Buyer. See Paragraph 4(D).

C. INSPECTION OPTIONS: Buyer will have the following options during the Due Diligence Period:

1. Buyer can accept Property as inspected.

2. If Buyer, in his sole discretion or as a result of any inspection, examination or test conducted, determines property to be unsatisfactory, Buyer may terminate this Contract by providing entire copies of all inspection reports, if any, and written notice of termination to Sellers or Seller's Broker prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period or any mutually agreed upon extension to this period and the earnest money will be released to Buyer. See Paragraph 4(D). If Buyer fails to give such notice prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period and any extension, Buyer will be deemed to have accepted the Property "As-Is" with Seller having no obligations to make any repairs or replacements to the Property and Buyer being obligated to proceed with the transaction in accordance with the terms of this Contract.

3. If Buyer requests Seller make repairs and/or replacements to the Property, Buyer must submit complete copies of any inspection reports and an Inspection Repair Addendum, signed by the Buyer, identifying specific defects Buyer wants corrected, to Seller or Seller's Broker prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period or any mutually agreed extension to this period. If Buyer fails to submit complete copies of these reports and the Addendum to Seller or Seller's Broker prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period and any extension, Buyer will be deemed to have accepted the Property "As-Is" with Seller having no obligation to make any repairs or replacements to the Property, and Buyer will be obligated to proceed with the transaction in accordance with the terms of this Contract. If reports and Addendum are submitted within the Due Diligence Period and any extension, Buyer and Seller will then have five (5) Business Days from expiration of Due Diligence Period to negotiate the defects to be corrected by Seller, at Seller's expense, and sign the Addendum. If Buyer and Seller have not reached agreement on the Addendum by the end of this negotiation period:

- a. Buyer and Seller may mutually agree to extend the negotiating period through written Addendum to this Contract, or;
- b. Buyer will have two business days after the end of the negotiation period, or any extension to the period, to accept Property "As-Is" in current state with no repairs or replacements made by Seller by providing written notice to Seller or Seller's Broker, or;
- c. If the negotiating period is not extended and Buyer does not accept Property "As-Is" within the time frame prescribed in the above Paragraph, then either party can terminate this Contract by providing written notice of termination to the other and earnest money will be released to Buyer. See Paragraph 4(D). Seller's failure to respond to the Inspection Repair Addendum within the five (5) Business Day period will be deemed to be a refusal to do repairs/replacements.

D. FHA/VA APPRAISAL INSPECTIONS: If Buyer uses FHA or VA financing, the Property may be inspected by an Appraiser appointed by Lender. This inspection is not subject to time limitations or other requirements of the Due Diligence Period outlined above. If Appraiser identifies repairs to be made as a condition of loan approval and Seller elects not to make them, Buyer will have the option of paying for and completing the repairs prior to closing or voiding this Contract, with earnest money being released to Buyer. See Paragraph 4(D).

RECOMMENDATION TO BUYER REGARDING INSPECTIONS

Exit Real Estate Consultants and its' owners, brokers, employees and associate licensee (hereinafter collective "ERC") strongly recommend that Buyer do the following in terms of inspections:

1. Request a written property condition disclosure from the Seller as required by South Carolina State Law unless otherwise exempt by statute. Upon receipt, fully review the form and ask for any clarifications needed.
2. Select a licensed professional inspector who the Buyer deems qualified to verify the condition of the property being purchased. Buyer should determine if the scope of each inspection meets Buyers expectations. ERC is not responsible for any recommendation made by one of its' licensees as such is merely a recommendation and not a warranty or guarantee of the inspection to be performed. Buyer is at all times free to use any inspector of their choice and is not required to use ERC's recommendations. Arrangements for inspections should be made by Buyer as the Buyer is solely responsible for the cost of the inspection. All inspections must be paid in full regardless if Buyer completes transaction or cancels due to inspections.
3. The inspections should include but are not limited to:
 - a. Exterior and interior structural parts of the property including roof shingles, sheathing and flashing.
 - b. Heating and cooling systems. Buyer is advised that ductwork, system efficiency or capacity, and window or zone units are not routinely part of heating and air inspections.
 - c. Electrical system.
 - d. Plumbing system(s).
 - e. Appliances.
 - f. Termite and other pest infestation.
 - g. Standing water, or excessive moisture in the crawl space, active leaks and/or damage.
 - h. Environmental issues including but not limited to asbestos, carbon monoxide, radon gas, flooding, wetlands, underground oil/gas tanks, mold, mildew, lead paint, etc.
 - i. Fireplace/chimney.
 - j. Septic tank/system. Should a system be required, but not in existence, arrange for a percolation test, application, and permit for adequate system.
 - k. Well/potable water (if applicable conducted by certified laboratory)
 - l. Pool (if applicable).
4. Buyer should be aware that inspections do not normally address nor guarantee life expectancy of the components of a house and should not be construed as warranties. Buyers agent may assist in the purchase of a home warranty if one is desired.

5. The Buyer should ask their chosen inspector to determine if the property was constructed with any defective or improperly installed materials, including any which has resulted in damage and/or could be a part of a class action lawsuit. Examples include but are not limited to certain types of fiber board siding, synthetic stucco, polybutylene plumbing, etc. Buyers inspector may recommend that additional inspections may be necessary by an expert on a particular item.
6. ERC recommends Buyer obtain from an attorney or appropriate government, county or city entity any information regarding the property that might affect Buyers intended use. If Buyer does not specifically request this information from the closing attorney, the closing attorney will not provide this information. Most closing attorneys will charge a separate fee for determining zoning matters as such is not normally within the scope of a real estate closing. This would include but not be limited to:
 - a. County/city restrictions.
 - b. Zoning.
 - c. Specific desires of Buyer with regards to homeowner's regime or subdivision covenants and restrictions.
 - d. Subdividing restrictions and/or regulations or deed restrictions.
 - e. Boundaries and easements.
 - f. Flood zones, wetlands.
7. ERC recommends Buyer obtain a new survey identifying the location of all improvements on the property including any encroachment or projections, the high water mark, the 100 year flood plain, any fringe land NOT owned by the seller, and any other matters of survey that are of concern to the Buyer. Buyers closing attorney can assist with the ordering of the survey.
8. ERC also recommends the Buyer obtain:
 - a. A home warranty.
 - b. A title exam performed by the closing attorney.
 - c. Purchase owner title insurance offered by the closing attorney.
 - d. Purchase homeowner's insurance (also recommend your insurance agent advise you as to the insurability of the property).

READ IMPORTANT WARNING! WIRE FRAUD!

Now that you are purchasing a house, criminals will attempt to trick you into wiring your funds to them instead of the closing attorney.

Criminals will attempt to hack into your social media and e-mail accounts. The criminals then monitor these accounts seeking information about your closing and the identity of the closing attorney.

The criminals then send you a fake e-mail with wire instructions from what appears to be your real estate agent's or closing attorney's e-mail. Once you wire your money to their account, it is gone forever!

DON'T BE FOOLED! PROTECT YOUR MONEY!

HERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT STEPS TO TAKE TO AVOID THIS FRAUD:

1. WE NEVER PROVIDE YOU WIRING INSTRUCTIONS. IF YOU RECEIVE WIRING INSTRUCTIONS FROM EXIT REAL ESTATE CONSULTANTS, YOUR AGENT OR LENDER, IT IS FRAUDULENT!!!
2. Closing Attorney wire instructions RARELY if ever change. Don't accept changes to wire instructions, ever. If you receive an email saying wiring instructions have changes, immediately call your closing attorney.
3. Please call the closing attorney's office to verify ALL wire instructions. Do not call the number in the wire request E-mail. Ask your real estate agent or look-up the attorney's number in google.
4. Carefully examine the wire instructions for typos, grammatical errors, or suspicious names. If it looks wrong, it probably is.
5. Compare e-mail addresses, not just the name of the sender.
6. Question anything that looks unusual or out of the ordinary.
